SUMMARY

I am seeking a Front-End Developer Internship where I can apply and further strengthen my solid foundation in HTML, CSS, and basic JavaScript. I have hands-on experience in creating responsive, user-friendly interfaces using Bootstrap and enjoy transforming design concepts into clean, interactive web experiences. I am highly motivated, eager to learn new technologies, and excited to contribute to a dynamic team environment. My goal is to grow as a front-end developer by gaining real-world experience while delivering visually appealing and functional web solutions
